An altereation occurred at Amherst Court

House, Friday evening between John Matt Brown, son of the late Howell Brown, and Lucian Fletcher, son of the late Elijah Fletcher, which it is feared will result fatally .-Both the young men were in liquor, when a quarrel ensued which eventuated in a fight, Fletcher knocking Brown down, and while on top of him inflicting a very ugly wound on his side and thigh with a bowie knife; the gash being so deep as to expose the main artery. After being cut, Brown called on the bystanders to take Fletcher off, which was immediately done, whereupon Brown raised and discharged his revolver four times, each load taking effect; two in the body, one in the hand, and the fourth in the leg. On Saturday evening. Fletcher was extremely low, and was not expected to survive. Aithough Brown's wound is a very serious one, it is supposed he will recover .-Both of the parties are most respectably connected, and were, we understand, on friendly terms up to the time of the difficulty which ended so disastrously.

Here our report abruptly closes. The following letter, withdrawing his name from the convention as a candidate for the Presidency, was received from the Hon. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, by Gen. Milligan, of the delegation of that State:

WASHINGTON CITY, June 18, 1860. GEN. SAMUEL MILLIGAN-Dear Sir :- Whilst deeply thankful to you and your associate delegates in the National Convention, for your support of my name as a candidate for the Presidency, endorsing and reflecting therein the honor done me by the State Convention of the democracy of Tennessee, an honor and distinction given my name, by the people who I have served, and whose confidence is worthy of the best efforts and highest ambition of any man, yet in this hour of peril to the harmony and integrity of the Demo- to the place itself will be furnished by Mr. Charles cratic party-in this hour of serious apprehension | Conner, who now resides upon it, to any person for the future welfare and perpetuity of our government, I cannot and will not suffer my name to add to the difficulties and embarrassment of my friends. TERY VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION .- As executors of Mrs. Naucy Smith, deceased, and by virtue of directions in her will, we shall, on Monday, the 30th day of July next, if not prevented by inclemency of weather, (otherwise on the first day thereafter,) sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that much more than commonly valuable TRACT OF LAND, on which she resided, lying in the counties of Culpeper and Madison, on the waters of Robinson River and Crooked Run, and containing by recent survey 651 ACRES and a fraction of an acre. The quality and condition of the soil, and enclosures, and character of the other improvements, make this estate cminently desirable, besides which, it possesses numerous other and great advantages; among these are the healthiness of the situation, its proximity to the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, being distant only four miles from the nearest Depot, and the excellence of the society in the neighborhood. Persons who desire a most agreeable country residence, and at the same time a most productive farm, should by all means examine this estate .-The Railroad will bring them within the distance of it above mentioned, and a conveyance thence desiring to make such an examination, who will inform him by mail of the day when such person will be at the Rapid Ann Depot, on the aforesaid Railroad. His Post-Office is at Locust Dale, which is one mile distant, in the county of Madison, the Court House of which county is about twelve miles distant, the same being also the distance of Culpeper Court House, while the distance to Orange Court House is about eight miles. Mr. Conner and Messrs. Edward Lightfoot and John Lightfoot, whose residence is contiguous, will take leasure in showing the property thoroughly. The terms of the sale will be, one-fourth of the purchase money down, and the residue in three equal annual instalments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with sufficient surety, to the satisfaction of the undersigned, and a deed of trust upon the premises.
